TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR INCOME

There are multiple revenue streams built into the Network Lead Exchange business model. As a chapter owner you can benefit from annual membership fees, commissions for passed referrals, royalties from your entire chapter and franchise referrals. Plus, instead of paying someone else to generate leads, you can create your own quality network for your own business growth. This allows you to take control and add an additional source of revenue to your income.

TURN-KEY OPERATION

Fuel your entrepreneurial spirit without the overwhelming capital, time and energy it takes in doing it alone. With our easy-to-follow model and system, franchisees can quickly hit the ground running. With this comes our extensive online training program where we will teach you everything you need to know in running, managing and growing a successful business networking group.

LOW-COST INVESTMENT

Network Lead Exchange is a low-cost franchise opportunity with no inventory or equipment to purchase and maintain. The business can also be run by a single owner, if desired, virtually eliminating the costs associated with staffing and payroll and making it a recession proof business.

FLEXIBLE LIFESTYLE

Franchisees create their own work schedules and can work from any location they desire. The business is mainly run using our online communication platform and an internet connected mobile device, so franchisees have flexibility in where, when, and how they work. Once members are set up, the chapter can run itself through the platform so that you can focus on your main business and the new leads flowing to it.

START-UP AND ONGOING SUPPORT

Franchisees receive both initial training and ongoing support leading up to and following the chapter launch event. Our network provides a wealth of continuing education, training and support to help keep your networking group and business successful.

IDEAL CANDIDATES

This franchise is great for someone who is passionate about helping others and building connections, interested in growing and managing a business networking group, and someone with high energy and confidence. If business networking is something you currently do, or if it is something you strive to do, Network Lead Exchange is the perfect fit for you.
